GETTING OUT RAPIDLY.

No Trouble Anticipated with the Swift Settlers.

LEAVENWORTH, March 18.—General Merritt has given orders for the Strip to be cleared, in an interview to-day he stated that there were few people in the Strip who didn't know they were there without warrant of law, and they would regret their hasty action at an early date.

ARIZONA CITY, March 18.—Still they come back from the Cherokee Strip. All day disappointed and dejected boomers alighted from heavily laden trains and brought them from their new to their old homes.

Butler (a fancy fellow—who has been told to announce people by the characters they represent—to new arrivals)—What character?

English papers have been hunting all this month for a rhyme to rhyme with the word "settlers" on the following couplet as the only possible one:

On the Great Western line, at the station of I offered my port to pay for a pint, but the right and wrong of it was not known.

At 11 o'clock the work of excavating the ruins of the Bowen-Merritt fire was still in progress. So far ten firemen are known to be dead. Their names are George Faulkner, Ulysses Glazier, George Glenn, A. Hoffman, Richard Lowrie, Ephraim Hornor, Charles Jenkins, pipeman, and Chas. J. Sawyer, who was a lineal ancestor of the late Secretary of the Interior, Thomas S. Burkhardt, Thomas A. Black.

Wounded—Anthony Voltz, pipeman; Law Rafter, fireman; Thomas Barren, fireman; A. C. Mercer, captain fire department; Samuel W. Neal, pipeman; Thomas B. Black, pipeman; William Fates, pipeman; Frank Hornor, fireman; Charles Jenkins, pipeman; William Heintz, pipeman; badly hurt; John Burkhardt, pipeman; badly hurt about the head.

BENJAMIN RISES RIGHT UP.

The Boomers Are Monkeying With Uncle Samuel.

A Very Persistent Feeling that They Were Allegedly No Previous—Some Remarkable Scenes.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The president has issued the following notice: The lands known as the Cherokee Strip are not open to settlement. The bill pending in congress and intended to provide a civil government for the territory known as Oklahoma, does not provide for opening the Cherokee Strip or outlet to settlement, and has not as yet received the approval of the president.

ARIZONA CITY, Kan., March 17.—On Friday morning a number of boomers appeared to spring from the ground. No one realized, along the entire line, how many were waiting to homestead. Not less than 100 people seemed to have been living in wagons on the line, and many of them, on foot-back and mule-back, all ready to start at the drop of a hat.

Actually the boomers were stamped into the Strip much the same as the cattle which were driven over the line. They were without any preconceived plan or method and plunged into the outlet without order or reason.

As showing the number of people who poured into the outlet, it is stated that a city of 5,000 people sprang up in the night. Here hastily improvised hotels, grocery and supply stores have already been constructed and are doing a thriving business.

At Guthrie Saturday night a correspondent boarded a train in which the representatives of the Cherokee Strip Cattle company were returning from the Fort Worth cattlemen's convention. E. M. Hewins, president of the company, was among the first to appear.

A MOVE ON THEMSELVES!

The Boomers Do Not Wait For a Presidential Ukase.

Some of a Year Ago Being Remembered—Trouble—Some of the Events of the Day.

ARIZONA CITY, Kan., March 15.—On the 15th, the signal for the invasion of the Cherokee Strip was given by the boomers who gathered on the borders of the Strip for the past fortnight. It echoed round the outlet from midnight until dawn yesterday morning, when the boomers rose over the promised land the invasion had actually begun.

KIOWA, Kan., March 17.—The news of the president's proclamation ordering the settlers of the Cherokee Strip was received here with general approval by all except the boomers, who are greatly disappointed. The boomers are now en route from Fort Supply and will arrive here tomorrow, and boomers are continually arriving, some on their way to and some from the Strip.

THE SIBERIAN OUTRAGE. LONDON, March 17.—The attention of Mr. Serghius Stepanik, the Russian Liberal, was called to the fact that some had expressed doubt as to the authenticity and trustworthiness of the recently published accounts of outrages to which political prisoners in Siberia had been subjected.

THE CROP OF FOOLS. ARIZONA CITY, Kan., March 17.—On Friday morning a number of boomers appeared to spring from the ground. No one realized, along the entire line, how many were waiting to homestead.

THE SECRETARY'S SCHEME. TORONTO, March 17.—Secretary McPherson of the state board of agriculture, is sending out blanks to the correspondents of the department in every county in Kansas upon which to make crop and live stock reports.
